

Hi All,

The Kingston Loving weekend is quickly approaching with the big race day on Sunday 14 Feb. This is an Olympic distance race so a great opportunity to test out the legs in the lead up to Victor, Murray Man and Iron Man. We've had quite a few queries regarding the Kingston accommodation and we have managed to put a tentative booking for the following rooms for Saturday 13 Feb (thanks Lou!):

- 10 rooms at the Lacapede Bay Hotel (4 already taken; on the run course, and has air conditioning and a pool, rooms are approximately $100 a room and have double and twin rooms available) – Lou has put a tentative booking on this hotel however they need us to confirm by tomorrow Tuesday 26 Jan otherwise the rooms will be booked to another group!
- 5 rooms at Econolodge Kingston \(Previously called Lobster Motel Inn\) (2 doubles avail @ $90/rm; 3 twins avail @ $95/rm; approx 1km from the start line ) we have until Wednesday 27 January to confirm

Rooms will need to be confirmed ASAP as there are other groups on the waiting list for the hotels. If you are interested in staying with the Lakers and have not yet booked accommodation please email sarah.calton@unisa.edu.au or phone 0423 044 872. As there are limited rooms available, rooms will be locked in on a first in, first served basis.

Cheers guys,
